May, 2017

Dear Campers and Parents,

The countdown to our 63rd Season has begun and we can hardly wait to get going! The finishing touches on all our new improvements for 2017 are currently underway. To help you get ready for camp, we have included the following information:

-  Safety, Security and Supervision 2017 - To be signed by family and returned by June 16th
-  Baggage Tags - To attach to duffel bags and "carry on" bags, lock boxes, etc... (x3 per camper)
-  Return Envelope - To return all appropriate forms as outlined below

The forms and information listed below are available for download directly from our website at www.wahanowin.com → Parents Please complete the required forms (as applicable) and return to our office using the enclosed return envelope included for your convenience. Health Form and Additional Forms are due June 16th!

2017 ONLINE Health Form

Your camper Health Form(s) must be completed online as part of your families' enrolment file. You will receive an e-mail from the Camp Office with a link and instructions to complete your online Health Form(s). Just like your camper registration, the information on each health form will be kept on file from one year to the next so that only updated information will be required to complete each year making the process and time commitment easier and much more efficient. Completed health forms must be submitted online by Friday, June 16th.

Additional Forms

-  Swim Card - required for all campers
-  Camper Goals - required for campers up to Grade 5 and/or new campers to Wahanowin
-  Tell Us More About Your Camper - required for campers up to Grade 5 and/or new campers
-  Special Diet Form - if applicable

Additional Information

-  Packing List - Your guide for what to pack (and what not to pack) for camp. Print this list to assist you while packing and remember to respect our 2 Duffle Bag LIMIT
-  Bunk1 Camper E-mail Service - Keep in touch with your camper(s) all summer long
